

Otter News

October 2022

Bishop Otter comes to Brighton

William Otter visited Brighton in 1834, nearly 200 years ago. Two years later he became the Bishop of Chichester. This meant that he was in charge of all the clergy in the Diocese of Chichester.

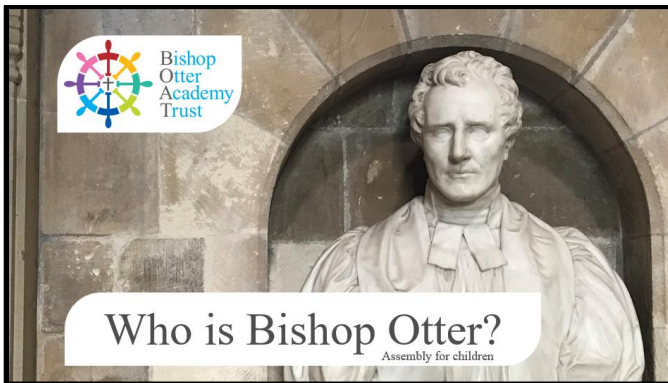

Bishop Otter – a bust and a painting

Look at the maps on the next page!

You can find out more about Bishop Otter by watching the video:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RpMEAIJ15Ig>

Spot the difference

Did you work out which two pictures were the same?

It was the top left and the bottom right!

Wanted: Budding writers

Do you want to write something for 'Otter News'? If so, please speak to your teacher!

Best Bible Bit

Another of Bishop Otter's favourite bible verses was from Matthew 22:39:

"Love your neighbour as yourself."

Little question:

Who is your neighbour?

Big question:

How do you look after and love yourself?

Count the Otters!

Last 'Otter News' had 7 animal otters and 2 pictures of William Otter.

How many animal otters can you find this time?

What kind of otter is this? → → →

Maps - The Diocese of Chichester

This map of Sussex was published in 1787 when William Otter was 9 years old.

This is a modern map of the Diocese of Chichester. It also shows the location of St Nic's.

Can you find where you live? Where is the city of Chichester?

William Otter visited Brighton in 1834, but what was it called then?

What other differences can you find between the two maps?